The widely cited Surgeon General’s report.

A comprehensive monograph covering all aspects of oral health aimed specifically at family physicians.

A good review of the oral examination.

The AAP’s official statement on oral health interventions by pediatricians and the timing of the first dental visit.

A good review article focusing in child oral health at the well child visit.
Adult Oral Health

An excellent review of common oral lesions aimed at primary care clinicians.

An excellent review of common oral lesions aimed at primary care clinicians.

An excellent review of common tongue conditions aimed at primary care clinicians.

The definitive AHA guidelines on antibiotic prophylaxis.

An excellent evidence-based review.

A general reference on dental management on medically complicated patients.

MacDonald DE, Principles of Geriatric Dentistry and their Application to the Older Adult with Physical Disability, Clinics of Geriatric Medicine, 2006;22:413-434.
An excellent review of common dental issues in the geriatric population.

A good review of the issues surrounding oral surgery and dental treatment in patients on oral anticoagulants.

A definitive textbook of oral pathology.

Acute Dental Problems

www.aafp.org/afp/20030201/511.html
A good review article aimed specifically at primary care clinicians.
A good review article aimed at primary care clinicians.

A review of the use of mouthguards.

The comprehensive reference on traumatic dental injuries.

ISBN # 0-942364-05-8
A well-known reference aimed at non-dentists in rural areas.

Oral Health in Pregnancy

A good review of the latest evidence aimed at primary care clinicians and medical professionals who provide maternity care.

A good general review of oral health in pregnancy and its implications for the oral health of children.

The definitive evidence based review on the transmission of mutans streptococci.

Topical Fluoride Varnish

A good review of the balance between the benefits of fluoride supplementation and the risks of fluorosis.

The ADA’s recommendations of the use of topical fluoride.

Revised June, 2010